From a young age, Anthony Cole has always been inspired by the Beauty Industry. His many years in the industry started at the age of 16 in his uncle's salon in Queens, NY. At such a young age he was inspired by the stylists and knew this was his chosen path. From there he went on to advanced education with Vidal Sassoon and Jingles International. Armed with this new knowledge and passion he next set out to open his own salon to educate and inspire others. He owned and operated Anthony Cole and Company Salon in Long Island for 14 years where he developed his own educational programs. He wanted to take it to the next level and reach out to touch and educate much further than his staff and salon. Anthony started with Sebastian as an advocate and his passion and determination led him to his current position on the Sebastian International Artistic Team. This has opened many avenues for his work such as gracing the cover of Bazaar Magazine, leading stylist for New York/LA Fashion Week, and countless other editorial, film and television, and high profile celebrity projects. He now travels the world sharing his inspiration and knowledge to many different cultures in Europe and Asia. From a young boy in Queens with big dreams to the international stage with Sebastian, Anthony is continuing to achieve things he never imagined and now see no limits in sight.
